ORANGE COUNTY AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

VOL. XXXVIII NO. 3 P.O. BOX 3454, TUSTIN, CA. 92781 MARCH 1997

The Prez Sez:

THE SHOW AND TELL NIGHT

The event should be a real barn burner - lets make this a club project.
(I have asked the Editor to re-submit last month's notice.)

Our illustrious President would like to have, for need of a better title, a SHOW AND TELL NIGHT at the club. The tentative month for this event is May 97. The night will consist of the different aspects of Amateur Radio as depicted by you, the members. You may also have a friend who would be happy to be a part of this night. The participants will SHOW their favorite mode of operation, an antenna they have built, a project they have built, a project or equipment they have built for use on or off the air, any aspect of amateur radio, and TELL a short talk of what they are showing. All special equipment will be supplied by the presenter. If you, or someone you know, would like to be a part of this evening, please contact Art, AD6B at (714) 997-3735 or email at: oneoldham@aol.com or oneoldham@juno.com. This would be a great evening for all and especially for those would-be hams we know.

RAMBLINGS

Volunteers are really needed to man the various sections of the Baker to Los Vegas Challenge Cup Relay Race. This is a three day stint. April 11,12,13th.
(if you can join the group on minimum time share that would be ok, I think.)
Please check with Tom(WA6PFA)

Also in passing Steve (KE6NAH) has been doing a fantastic job filling in for Bob (KD6BWH) who has been on vacation. News line didn't miss a beat.

To our deepest regret the club secretary Jane (KC6TAM) has had to relinquish her duties due to bad health. We all wish her a speedy recovery.

SOLVING INTERFERENCE PROBLEMS

RFI PROBLEMS: Whether you are having problems with interference from or to electrical/electronic devices, the Technical Coordinator in your section or one of his assistants (Technical Specialists) may be able to help. Remember, if you are dealing with a neighbor, tact and understanding will go a long way in getting cooperation. In addition, you may find it helpful to purchase the ARRL book, Radio Frequency Interference: How To Find It And Fix It. Also, a free pamphlet for the consumer is available from HQ, "What to do if you have an electronic interference problem."

REPEATER-TO-REPEATER QRM: These kinds of problems are best worked out between the repeater groups involved. While it is not illegal to have an uncoordinated repeater, the FCC rules give its trustees the primary responsibility for resolving any interference to coordinated repeaters. Each local area has long-established coordination bodies that volunteer their time and effort. In Arizona, the ARCA Frequency Committee is headed by W7HSG. In Southern California, there are three groups: the Two-Meter Area Spectrum Management Association (TASMA) headed by AB6FC, the 220MHz Spectrum Management Association (220SMA) headed by K6IYK, and the Southern California Repeater and Remote Base Association (SCRRBA) headed by W6QC. The groups listed above are the only ones recognized in the SW Division by the ARRL.

INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE: The ARRL Official Observers (OO), while mainly concerned with unintentional violations, are part of the Volunteer Monitor Program (VOLMON) which includes Local Interference Committees (LIC). The LICs are an important part of the Amateur Auxiliary to the FCC. Most LICs are formed locally on a case-to-case basis headed by an OO. The Auxiliary located violators using FCC-approved radio direction finding (RDF) procedures and gathers evidence in a manner that facilitates prosecution when required. In addition to the national agreement between the ARRL and the FCC, most of our local sections have formal working agreements with their local FCC offices.

When encountering jamming NEVER REACT to it on the air. With the exception of turning off a repeater, deliberate interference and obscenity should be completely ignored. If the problem is a serious ongoing problem, make a log and report it to your Section Manager (see page 12 of QST). Please DO NOT CONTACT THE FCC yourself. The less we burden the FCC, the more effective action they will give when we have a well documented case to present.

NON-AMATEUR INTRUSION: The volunteer group that deals with non-amateur stations that cause harmful interference within our bands is under the ARRL Monitoring System. The appropriate FCC monitoring facilities are notified of the major cases. After analysis, many of the most important cases are submitted to the FCC Treaty Branch.
